

The Otters Fun Facts

- Otters can live in by any water e.g. sea or in lakes and rivers
- Otters like to eat crabs, frogs and other small fish which are easy to catch
- They have the thickest fur of any other mammal
- Their poo smells nice, like jasmine tea
- They can close their ears and nose when they are under water
- There are 13 different species of otter
- Baby otters are called Pups, female otters are called Sows and males, Boars
- The Pups are usually born in Summer